THE TOLEDO MUSEUM OF ART

FOUNDED BY EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY

SPRING 1958

WHAT WILL OUR CHILDREN LEARN?

In these days of scientific miracles, international tensions and rapidly changing patterns of social, political and moral values, is there any place or any need for art or music?

Most thinking people believe there is. Most families want their children to learn something about the logic, discipline and order that emanate from all great works of art.

For 55 years, Toledo's children have benefited by the Art Museum's free programs of art and music education. Each year it becomes more difficult to accommodate all the children who want to learn.

The families and corporations whose names appear on the following pages help make possible the Art Museum's educational programs. Toledo's children benefit by these contributions.

1957 was a year of growth for your Museum. Children's attendance increased by 11,563; Museum Membership increased by 281; great works of art were added to the collection; and 19 temporary exhibitions enlivened the ever-changing and full calendar of events.

There is no single yardstick with which one can measure a museum's worth to the community, but continuing growth and service are essential.

48,871 LAST YEAR . . . MORE NOW

Last year, attendance of children at the gallery programs of art and music was 48,871. Eleven Museum instructors and 41 volunteer docents skillfully provided talks on art and music which were carefully coordinated with school work.

Because of your Membership contributions, more children can be taken along paths famous artists have walked, more children can learn about history through the great art of the past, and can also learn the joy of creating their own art. Members' contributions are used only to support the Museum's rewarding and valuable educational program for children.

HELP YOURSELF HELP YOUR COMMUNITY

Feeling that you are a contributing part of the growth and expansion necessary for a great Museum's livelihood is rewarding and worthwhile. Museum Members have the satisfaction of knowing that their entire contribution goes for the support of unendowed educational activities.

In addition to the satisfaction of knowing that you are a member of one of the world's great art museums, and that you contribute to its support, there are other benefits which members receive. Among them are: Subscriptions to the Museum News and the Calendar of Events; special invitations to receptions and previews; discount on purchases at the Museum's Information Center; tickets to Members' Concert; advice on purchase of works of art and their care.

Life Members have contributed $500. Supporting Members contribute annually $100; Sustaining Members $50; Contributing Members $25; Active Members $10.

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTORS TO THE MUSEUM

The names of the contributors listed below are permanently recorded on a bronze plaque near the main entrance. The opportunity and challenge to equal the generosity of a past generation is with us today. Additional names take their place each year.

Benefactors have contributed $500,000 or more; Foundation Members $100,000; Patrons $50,000; Sponsors $25,000; Endowment Members $10,000; and Fellows $5,000.
